A FIRE AT THE BREWERY

Last evening at 9:30 fire was discovered in the repair and machine shop on the second floor at the local plant of the Independent Brewing Co. by several of the employees of the concern. The blaze had gained considerable headway at the time it was discovered and it was with great difficulty that access could be gained to the room where the fire was raging.

Several streams of water were turned on the flames by the companies fire department and they were able to hold it in check until the arrival of the Volunteer Fire Department. About this time the ammonia tanks located in the machine room gave way and the flames forced the firemen to remove to a greater distance and lessened the effectiveness of their efforts. The walls of the building were fireproof and after the material stored in the room had been consumed, the blaze was finally gotten under control.

Recently the elevator shaft leading to the upper floors of the building was closed at the machine shop entrance and this probably saved the destruction of the entire building for had the flames once gotten into this shaft they would have been exceedingly hard to combat.

Definitely the origin of the fire is unknown although it is thought to have been caused by a spark from a passing locomotive five or ten minutes before the alarm was sounded. In addition to the loss on a large stock of paints and the machinery which was in the burned room, several carloads of grain were destroyed by water. The damage is expected to run up to about $5,000, covered by insurance.

MONESSEN FOLK TO ATTEND CONVOCATION

Past Commander Charles Shrader has been chosen as representative from Monessen, Commandery No. 332, Ancient and Illustrious Order, of the Knights of Malta to attend the twentieth annual convocation of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, which will be held at Butler May 14, 15 and 16. Elaborate preparations are being made by the arrangement committees of that place, of which Thomas H. Greer is chairman.

The order has about 25,000 members in the 450 commanderies throughout the state and about a thousand delegates and visitors will attend.

On Tuesday, the big day, when the parade will be held, about 20,000 people are expected. Robert B. Keller, of Stroudsburg, is grand commander and John H. Hoffman, of Philadelphia, grand recorder.

Mrs. Shrader contemplates accompanying her husband from Monessen and P. P. Bush also expects to attend the convocation.

BODY FOUND AFTER THREE LONG YEARS

According to a telegram received in Connelisville yesterday, the body of Richard J. Crossland, formerly a well known druggist of that town, but who disappeared about three years ago, was found in the Pensacola, Fla., harbor. That news was sent to Crossland's father by the commander of Fort Barnacas.

That commander stated that the man had been missing for several days and although every effort had been made to locate him, all had been in vain. Sunday a body was found floating in the harbor by a ship and when brought to shore it was identified as that of Richard Crossland.

After leaving Connellsville, Crossland had joined the Regular army and had risen to the rank of a sergeant, which position he held at the time of his death. No particulars of the man's death were given, but it is believed that it was accidental.

Crossland studied pharmacy in Ada, O., and other schools and was the proprietor of a drug store in Connellsville for two years. About three years ago he left that town and was never heard from until the message of his death.

Provision for Families of Dead Workmen

J. J. Cushing arrived home last evening from Philadelphia where he attended a two days session of the Industrial Accident and Liabilities Commission which proved about the most interesting and successful meeting that body has held since the appointment by Governor Tener. Manufacturers and other men in charge of hundreds of workmen told what they thought of a workingman's compensation and employers' liability law.

Charles J. Hexamer made an address. Others heard were J. T. Clark, Hugo E. Varga, of Cleveland, representing the Austro-Hungarian Federation, and Baron Paul Forster, Austro-Hungarian Consul General, at Pittsburgh. The last two appeared to urge that reciprocity with their native country, be included in the workingmen's compensation act.

One of the questions discussed was that of including non-resident aliens among the beneficiaries under a liability act which would provide for payment of damages to the family of an employee who had been killed.

Good Repertoire Next Week

Interest is already being manifested in the forthcoming two weeks engagement of the Knickerbocker Co. at the Star Theatre Monday April 29th. News travels quickly, and so it has in the case of the Knickerbockers for word comes from many of the towns where the Knicks have played recently, congratulating the management upon having secured the company for two whole weeks. Their opening play, the widely read novel of the same name, "Wedded and Parted," has stood the test of the most severe critics and has never recieved one adverse criticism. This is saving a great deal for any piece. During our repertoire season, our bill will be changed three times a week. Monday, Wednesday and Friday—Prices 10—20—30c.

Mock Trial Proves Lively At Bellevernon

The most interesting and entertaining event that has been seen in Belle Vernon for a long time was the mock court trial conducted a few evenings ago in the M. E. church under the auspices of the Federated Men's Bible class of that city.

John Irons prosecuted Samuel Graham for larceny, charging him with the theft of one game rooster and four game pullets. Squire Jeffries was the presiding judge, and his decision of numerous law points revealed both gravity and erudition. The commonwealth was represented by Thomas Brown, of that place, and W. H. Martin, of Uniontown. The defense was represented by H. B. Pierce, Dr. E. C. Phillips and Frank Stein. The defense was an alibi.

Five witnesses were examined on each side, and the trial was conducted with all the solemnity and gravity of a regular court and in accordance with modern court proceedure. Three hundred interested spectators filled the room to capacity and breathless attention was given. The arguments made to the jury were both forceful and convincing, while the charge of the judge was a model of fairness.

After some deliberation the jury acquitted the defendant and placed the cost of the proceeding on the plaintiff. Everybody was delighted with the whole affair and so great is the interest that there is talk of continuing the court at intervals.

The Federated Men's Bible class provided a fine lecture course during the past winter and while it was fairly well attended no number drew so large a crowd as the mock trial of Friday night.

New School Building for Monon.

The Monongahela school board at a meeting Tuesday evening agreed on plans for the erection of an annex to the First ward building. The plans of Carlisle & Sharrer of Pittsburgh were chosen and work will be started just as soon as the plans are approved by the State Board of Education. The building is to be ready for use by the opening of the next school term.

HOLDS HIS TEMPER AGAINST CRITICISM

Ask Boro Engineer Johns about everything pertaining to the streets. Mr. Johns is at present devoting some time to general repairs about the streets and alleys of the town.

If there is a sunken place in the street near your premises Mr. Johns will be glad to learn of it and will go straight and repair it. If there is a hole in the alley any place he will go there with a bucket of mud and trowel and smear it shut.

As soon as the streets and alleys are made perfectly smooth they will be thoroughly washed. Mr. Johns is one of the most obliging and good natured public officials the town has ever had. He receives kicks in the same good natured manner he receives compliments. He believes a smile is always better than a frown.

Arranging for S. S. Convention

Mrs. Mary L. Stewart, field secretary of the Washington County Sabbath school association, reports that the Sunday school workers of Charleroi and other towns along the Monongahela river are making preparations for the annual county convention of Sunday school workers, to be held at Charleroi, June 20 and 21.

Efforts are being made to have 3,000 men and boys, members of Sunday school classes in the parade on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. It is expected that the parade will not extend over so long a course as on former occasions. Sunday school workers from here and other towns along the river have expressed a willingness to participate in the parade and other features of the convention. The river sections have promised to furnish 2,000 for the parade, and they look to Washington and other parts of the county in the middle and western sections to swell the number to 3,000.

LOCAL PEOPLE LOSE FRIENDS

A gloom has been cast over the family of George Stahlnecker of McKee avenue, as it is almost definitely known that a nephew and two grandnephews of Mrs. Stahlnecker were passengers aboard the ill-fated Titanic and that they lost their lives when the ship ran into the ice pack and sank off the banks of Newfundland.

Mrs. Stahlnecker noticed included in the ship's sailing list the names of Austin Van Billierd and two sons Watler and James, but as they had not intended to leave foreign shores until late in April, and word of their being aboard the Titanic not having been received, the matter of the similarity of names was not taken seriously. However, the friends eventually became alarmed and at last a brother of Mrs. Stahlnecker left his home at North Wales about 15 miles from Philadelphia, went to New York and made thorough investigation and particular inquiry at the offices of the White Star Line, and established the fact almost beyond question of doubt that their relatives were aboard the liner and were lost.

Austin Van Billierd and two sons had been in Paris and from there went to London to visit relatives, and it is supposed they knowing of the big ship Titanic making her first trip across the Atlantic, considered it quite an honorary novelty, so changed their minds and took passage aboard her, thus starting several weeks earlier than they had intended or their friends had expected. Mrs. Stahlnecker informs the Independent that they count her relatives as among the lost ones.

It is said that at least one coward escaped from the Titanic as she was sinking beneath the angry waves of the briny deep. Disguising himself as a woman he made his escape from a glorious death to live on an ignoble life. That man can, possibly, escape identification by his fellow men but he will surely go down to the grave loathing himself for his lowly act.

Will Soon be Forgotten

Regardless of the fact that the newspapers of all nations are publishing the story of the Titanic disaster in the most graphic manner, as the years roll around the world will forget the sad fate of hundreds who went to their death on the ship which was thought to be proof against any disaster.

The horrible disaster might have been worse. Had no ship come to resuce the perishing, all would have been lost. The latitude and longitude of the place where the boat went down is known, but in the centuries to come nothing will appear on the wide expanse of ocean except the rolling and plunging of billows above the ship and those of the crew and passengers who sank to the bottom of the ocean.

The world has seen many greater disasters and has forgotten all about them. During the siege of Jerusalem by Titus and his Roman army, one million persons perished. During Napoleon's retreat from Moscow, ninety-eight years ago, at least two hundred thousand French soldiers perished in the snow drifts and icy rivers. When the Spanish Armada was smashed to pieces by the storm, thousands of soldiers and sailors went to their death. The awfulness of all those disasters have faded away.

Great calamity has come upon humanity in other forms and they too have faded from memory of man. In the fall of 1775, "when Lisbon town saw the earth open and gulp her down," thirty-five thousand people perished. In 1812, one century ago, ten thousand people were killed by an earthquake at Caracas. Seven years ago, fifteen thousand people were killed by an earthquake shock in India.

After all, "God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform; He plants His footsteps on the sea, He rides upon the storm."

Forty-two drunks and disorderly last Saturday night. Wonder who is responsible for such a condition of affairs in this city. The saloons partly, the church going people generally. The large number of arrests reflect somewhat on the character of the city, but it reflects credit on the police force, for it indicates an honest effort to preserve the peace and good order of the city." Says the Daily Times of Chester—Those police surely did earn their salary last Saturday, just like real Monessen officers do—occasionally.

The worlds "cham-peens" seem to be starting off the base ball season as though they had punctures in their tires. Maybe they'll get inflated to the proper degree before long and get to playing real ball.

Rochester, N. Y.—"I have a daughter 13 years old who has always been very healthy until recently when she complained of dizziness and cramps every month, so bad that I would have to keep her home from school and put her to bed to get relief.

"After giving her only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she is now enjoying the best of health. I cannot praise your Compound too highly. I want every good mother to read what your medicine has done for my child."—Mrs. RICHARD N. DUNHAM, 311 Exchange St., Rochester, N.Y.

Stoutsville, Ohio.—"I suffered from headaches, backache and was very irregular. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of two bottles I found relief. I am only sixteen years old, but I have better health than for two or three years. I cannot express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had taken other medicines but did not find relief."—Miss CORA B. FOSNAUGH, Stoutsville, Ohio, R.F.D., No. 1.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for their daughters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

FOR AGED PEOPLE

Old Folks Should Be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine

We have a safe dependable and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitutions who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorders. We are so certain that it will relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer it with our personal guarantee that it shall cost the user nothing if it fails to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus over-coming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Three sizes, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Craig's Drug Store.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give your money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.

AT THE STAR

Manager McShaffrey of the Star Theatre, the home of laughter and tears, is using every effort at his command to please his patrons, being constantly on the lookout for the best—the newest, most novel and original—for the public entertainment. Thus, for tonight, Friday and Saturday, he has procured "Miss Mona Lisa and Her Pal," the most daring, original and high priced sketch artist obtainable, who will present the one really great sensation now in the realms of the amusement world, "Morning Star," a masterpiece in the world of sketches. This is vaudevilles latest and greatest production, and is looked upon as the origin of smiles, the fountain of tears and the dawn of oblivion. This is a headliner of the first water and is a feature to be talked about long after it has gone. So let every one see it, as the procuring of this great feature is one of Manager McShaffrey's master strokes of which he has made many. It is the only really great American Vaude-Drama, of Americans, for Americans, by Americans, and founded on fact. 1t

OLYMPIC

For today, Thursday a good, full hour-and a-quarter's show will be given at the Olympic Theatre, including the weekly current events of the American Press Association. Our feature picture today will be "Mutt and Jeff, who fell in love." Don't miss this great comedy. For Friday and Saturday, in addition to our moving picture show we will have four acts of singing, dancing, musical artists, dog performers, and others, Monday and Tuesday eleven people in a regular high class production in general variety work. Something unusual for the entertainment of the people. 1t

BIJOU

A special three day feature will be shown for the next three days at the Bijou. An entire change of program daily with several of the latest releases, everyone a pronounced success. 75-3t

C. M. Lamb of the Page Fence Co., has returned from a ten days business trip to Chicago and other western points.

Phil K. Shaner one of the successful attorneys at the Westmoreland bar was a business caller in town today.

News Notes of Society

Mrs John Irons at her pretty Gibsonton home, entertained two days this week—Tuesday and Wednesday—and that a true social spirit pervaded the confines of that popular domain is attested by the many who were present.

The features of Tuesday afternoon were "500" and fancy work, intermingled with good, homelike sociability and a luncheon of the sort peculiar to Mrs. Irons' higher tastes and superior qualifications along the line of preparing and serving the little dainties that make up the repast of an afternoon's social gathering.

"Bridge" constituted the leading pastime of the guests for Wednesday afternoon, and of course an enjoyable time was also had by every one and a most delectable luncheon was spread to the extreme delight of the guests. There were guests from Charleroi, Monongahela, Monessen, Belle Vernon and Uniontown.

The house decorations were very pretty, the scheme being carried out in yellow and green, spring flowers predominating. A boquet of violets was awarded in honor of the highest score made by the players both days.

Second Only to the Bible.

Shelton's translation of "Don Quixote" appeared in 1608. Besides this, six others more or less complete, were published in England before the end of the eighteenth century. The Bible only has been more widely diffused
